

Sinclair is clearly not acting in the public interest by forcing its stations to air a blatantly partisan, untruthful anti-Kerry movie. It is -or should be- a clear violation of campaign finance law as a free political add for George Bush. I believe that this provides more than enough reason to deny their next license renewal.